President's Message

This newsletter will most likely come to you in the last days of the year 2023. Some celebrations may have come and gone, and there may be some festivities still awaiting. Whichever it is for you, I hope that you have a wonderful Christmas season- and have claimed some quiet times for yourself.

I had such a wonderful time at our December social with all those of you who could attend! There was much laughter, conversation and good food! Thank you to all who had a part in getting that all together! Such great memories!

Now it is time to look forward into the year of 2024! No one knows exactly what this year will hold, but we can all strive to change for the better...meet a new friend, care for others that need encouragement, laugh with a friend to brighten their day...

We have our quilt show coming up - just a mere 94 days into 2024! I am so thankful for Suzanne & Victoria and their work on bringing this all together. I will be submitting some quilt registrations during my Christmas break, I hope that you will do the same. Many times, we may think that our work is not as good as we like it, and definitely not "show worthy", but remember- this is not a show to accentuate how good a quilter we may be, but this is a show to welcome our community and show them the joy we all find in our common love of creating through quilting. To accomplish that, we need a wide range of quilts. Let's fill the space with beautiful quilting!

Looking forward to seeing you next year!

Ruth

Notes from Philanthropy

Hello Quilters!

In December we received 8 finished quilts and 2 tote bags. We also received 15 more pillowcases for our Holiday Lily Pad Project, bring the total that we were able to donate 65 pillowcases to Lily Pad! We put each pillowcase in a clear cellophane bag that we sealed so that the children could see the pillowcase design, yet the pillowcase would stay clean and folded.

December Philanthropy Donations

Christmas Family Update and Final Donation

This year we collected $750 for our Christmas Family, and we divided the money between two of the agencies that we support, as agreed upon by the Guild members at our November meeting. We gave $375 to St. Clare's, which we purchased as six $50 Amazon Gift Cards for the women in residence at the home during Christmas, as well as a $75 Walmart Gift Card to help purchase groceries for their Christmas Dinner.

We also purchased a $375 Amazon Gift Card for Lily Pad for them to purchase pillows and pajamas for the children coming into the Foster Care Program over the Christmas holidays. Both agencies were thrilled with our donation and extremely grateful for the gift cards that would be used toward helping their clients have a nice Christmas.

Year-End Philanthropy Donation Report

In 2023, the Foothills Piecemakers Quilt Guild donated a total of 135 quilts, 60 cosmetic bags, 10 tote bags, 65 pillowcases and over 3 pounds of toiletries and toothbrushes to the following agencies:

- ❖ Miracle Hill Renewal Program: 34 Cosmetic Bags
- ❖ Miracle Hill Shepherd's Gate: 24 Quilts
- ❖ St. Clare's Home: 13 Quilts, 6 Cosmetic Bags, $375 as a Christmas Family: six $50 Amazon Gift Certificates, one $75 Walmart Gift Certificate for Christmas Dinner
- ❖ Julie Valentine: 44 Quilts total to the Hero's Program and Teenage Girl Program, and 20 Cosmetic Bags, 10 Totes, and 3 lbs. of toiletries and toothbrushes for the Rape Crisis Center
- ❖ Laurens Memorial Home: 3 Twin-sized Quilts
- ❖ STEPS: 14 Quilts
- ❖ Piedmont Women's Center: 20 Baby Quilts
- ❖ Lily Pad: 12 Quilts, 65 Pillowcases, $375 as a Christmas Family: one $375 Amazon Gift Certificate
- ❖ Misc: 5 quilts to community outreach situations

Thank you to everyone for all the ways that we come together to serve others in our community through your time, talents, and financial contributions. We may be a smaller Guild, but we are mighty in our impact and service in our community!

From the Newsletter Editor

Quilting tools are not just for quilting! I recently lined my new cabinets with shelf liner. Tape measures, quilting ruler and a cutting mat, along with a rotary cutter made the process much less painful than I remember from my last effort. It was more than worth using a dull blade for the cutting. Total. Game. Changer!

Programs

Upcoming Programs:

January Sandy Fitzpatrick of Hissyfitz Designs is an applique quilt pattern designer whose goal is to get as many of the quirky designs, that are spinning around in her head, down on paper for you to enjoy! Her fusible applique patterns are full of whimsy and will certainly bring a smile to your face. Sandy strives to make her full-sized patterns easy to follow and fun to make. Her classes, which focus on machine applique and free-motion quilting, are equally fun!

Sandy will be presenting her lecture on Splendid Stitches and Machine Magic. Unleash the power of your sewing machine using machine stitching to create dimension with amped up applique, decorative stitches, and thread painting. Open your mind to the possibilities that can be accomplished with your machine!

As a follow-up to her lecture, on Wednesday, Jan 3 from 9am-1pm, Sandy will be holding a workshop on Machine Applique. No need to fear the dreaded "A" word any longer. Using fusible and non-fusible techniques, Sandy will take away the mystery and dread as you learn how easy the process really is. You will improve your machine applique techniques with more than just basics. Learn how to do so much more with satin stitching, blanket stitching, and the decorative stitches on your machine.

Students can select any pattern on Sandy's website to work on during the class. You can view her full line of patterns at HissyfitzDesigns.com, but here are a few samples of her designs:

No Cookies or Milk

by Becky Erdman

Santa took off on a cold winter night
To begin his annual Christmas gift flight
At the first house he found no cookies and milk
Instead in a chair sat a lovely warm quilt
Oh my how warm this quilt will be
How kind that someone made it for me
But at the next stop was a house so poor
A child lay shivering, asleep on the floor
Sadness filled his heart for the poor little child
Who whimpered and cried out, every once in a while
So Santa took his quilt, and covered her on the floor,
And gently left with his heart feeling joyful once more
At the next house again no cookies and milk,
But a red, white, and blue and star laden quilt
How beautiful and warm this quilt makes me feel
With pride of country and honor, with love so real
But his sleigh took a detour and went to a home
And in it lived a man all alone
His legs were gone, lost in a war
On the wall hung his medals, from days of yore
This man was once a child full of laughter and joy
Looking at him now, Santa remembered the boy
He had loved to dance, and he loved to give
And now all alone, he struggled to live
Santa knelt by his side and whispered in his ear
I have watched you lovingly through all the years
Be proud of what you have done and who you are,
And quietly wrapped him in a quilt filled with stars
And so it went on that cold frigid night
Santa gave gifts to the children, which was his right
But in house after house, instead of cookies and milk
Santa found much love turned into quilts
He was quite late finishing up his rounds
But at last he stood upon his North Pole ground.
With eyes full of tears, he told the of no cookies and milk
But instead he had found such beautiful quilts
I wish, he sad sadly, that more would think
That instead of leaving for me a nice little drink
That people would give quilts to some stranger
Like the Wise men who brought gifts to the Manger
So perhaps you are a quilter who has read this tale
And will now make a quilt, if you are able
And give it to someone you do not know
And Bless them with a kindness that will show
That the world is kind, and people do care
That someone has answered their unspoken prayer
Wrap them in comfort and warm their hearts
You will be happier, much happier, for doing your part.
